Joint Parties v. Northwest Pipeline Corporation; Notice of Complaint

April 23, 1997.

On March 20, 1997, in Docket No. RP97-294-000, Northwest Pipeline Corporation (Northwest) tendered for filing a tariff sheet proposing a two-year extension of the operational flow order provisions in Section 14.15 of the General Terms and Conditions of Northwest's tariff. On April 1, 1997, Northwest Natural Gas Company, Washington Natural Gas Company, and Cascade Natural Gas Corporation filed a joint protest (Joint Parties).

On April 16, 1997, the Commission issued an order in Docket No. RP97-294-000,¹ finding, among other things, that Joint Parties' protest was tantamount to a complaint. Accordingly, the Joint Parties' protest is being redocketed as a complaint so that the allegations surrounding Northwest's past actions can be fully examined.

The complaint raises a number of questions including: (1) What is Northwest's design day capacity for deliveries to the south end of its system; (2) what was the cause(s) of the operational problems lasting from March 1996 thru September 1996; (3) should Northwest utilize its general tariff OFO Mechanism to provide additional short-term services; if yes, then under what conditions; (4) was Northwest remiss in its analysis assessing its ability to provide the 144,000 Dth/d of short-term firm services; (5) were Pacific Northwest customers harmed by Northwest's actions, and, if so, then how should that harm be addressed by the Commission; and (6) should the Commission alter the conditions under which Northwest can issue a general tariff OFO?

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said complaint should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 214 and 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214, 385.211). All such motions or protests should be filed on or before May 22, 1997. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. Answers to this complaint shall be due on or before May 22, 1997.
